

Relationship Management

“Effective relationships allow business partners to leverage each other’s resources and learn from each other”.

Interested parties: suppliers, contractors, partners, customers, investors, employees or society as a whole

✓ Step back from the problem

Keeping the customer in the focus will enable you to solve the problem together.

How does the issue affect them?

What do you all stand to lose if the customer's needs aren't met?

✓ Focus on Trust

“End the practice of awarding business on the basis of price tag. Instead, minimize total cost. Move toward a single supplier for any one item, on a long-term relationship of loyalty and trust”.

Bama
Companies

Actions to Take (As per ISO 9001: 2015)

- ✓ Determine relevant interested parties (such as suppliers, partners, customers, investors, employees, and society as a whole) and their relationship with the organization.
- ✓ Determine and prioritize interested party relationships that need to be managed.
- ✓ Pool and share information, expertise and resources with relevant interested parties.
- ✓ Measure performance and provide performance feedback to interested parties, as appropriate, to enhance improvement initiatives.
- ✓ Establish collaborative development and improvement activities with suppliers, partners and other interested parties.
- ✓ Encourage and recognize improvements and achievements by suppliers and partners.

Key Benefits (As per ISO 9001: 2015)

- ✓ Enhanced performance of the organization and its interested parties through responding to the opportunities and constraints related to each interested party
 - ✓ Common understanding of goals and values among interested parties
 - ✓ Increased capability to create value for interested parties by sharing resources and competence and managing quality-related risks
 - ✓ A well-managed supply chain that provides a stable flow of goods and services
- 