

9.3. Management Review

9.3.1. General

Top management reviews the organization's QMS, at planned intervals, to ensure its continuing suitability, adequacy, effectiveness and alignment with the strategic direction of the organization

Policy, Objectives, Targets, etc.

To respond to issues and to recommend improvements

Who should attend management review meetings?

- ✓ Member of Top management
 - ✓ Functional management
 - ✓ Line management
 - ✓ Process owners
 - ✓ Process champions
 - ✓ Action owners within the scope of the quality management system
 - ✓ Internal Auditors

How often?

- ✓ Critical management review agenda items (process performance, customer feedback and monitoring and measuring results) should be reviewed monthly
- ✓ Less critical agenda items (reviewing the quality policy and objectives should be undertaken less frequently) perhaps every quarter

Annual management reviews are insufficient in frequency to be able react to any issues effectively
