

ISO 9001:2015 Quality Management System Auditor

- Environment for the operation of processes -

Organization is required to determine, provide and maintain the right environment needed to operate its processes and to achieve conformity of products and services

Human factors

Physical factors

AUDITING

No requirement for documented information.

Specific environment requirements for the sector.

Health & Safety matters and medical testing of employees.

Monitoring of physical factors – temperature, humidity, etc

Actions taken to reduce stress, burnout, to provide a calm environment.

Observation + interview